Spiritual Drop from our Pastor

XVI Sunday in Ordinary Time - July 19, 2026

One of the major problems facing humanity today is the serious lack of concentration in everything we do. I've often wondered what future doctors, engineers, or any other future professionals—who are students today but don't like to read and are immersed in the empty world of social media or addicted to screens—will be like. It's frightening... we humans have a serious problem that we must humbly acknowledge: we are deeply distracted. This distraction has profoundly affected our spiritual lives to the point that we no longer notice the details—and life, like the human body, is a collection of many small details. This distraction no longer allows us to hear the inner voice of our conscience, much less the gentle voice of God or the whisper of help from those beside us. We must awaken from this lazy lethargy and return to what we were created for: profound and heavenly things.

Let us never forget that God is not superficial.

God loves you with infinite tenderness.

Uno de los grandes problemas a los que el ser humano se enfrenta actualmente es la grave falta de concentración en todo lo que hacemos. Muchas veces me he puesto a pensar en cómo serán los futuros médicos, ingenieros o cualquier otro futuro profesional que hoy es un estudiante, pero no le gusta leer y vive sumergido en el mundo vacío de las redes sociales o es adicto a las pantallas. Es atemorizante... los seres humanos tenemos un grave problema que debemos reconocer con humildad: estamos muy distraídos. Esta distracción ha tocado profundamente la vida espiritual al punto que ya no nos damos cuenta de los detalles y la vida, como el cuerpo humano, es un conjunto de muchos pequeños detalles. Esta distracción ya no nos permite escuchar la voz interior de la conciencia, mucho menos escuchar la voz delicada de Dios o el susurro de auxilio de los que están a nuestro lado. Hay que despertarnos de este letargo perezoso y volver para lo que fuimos creados: cosas profundas y celestiales. Nunca olvidemos que Dios no es un superficial.

Dios te ama con ternura infinita.
