WORD OF LIFE

27th Sunday in Ordinary Time: Faith Translated into Actions

"The apostles said to the Lord, 'Increase our faith.' The Lord replied, 'If you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you would say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you.'" (Lk 17:5-6)

Generally, faith is understood to be trust in and acceptance of some intellectual mysteries that we do not fully understand. That is, certainly, an aspect of faith. For example, from this perspective, we may say correctly that we have faith in the mystery of the Most Holy Trinity or in the Real Presence of the Lord in the Eucharist.

But having faith not only means believing in something, but more than that, it also means loving something, wanting something, and fighting for something. However, there are too many Orthodox Christians, even in this time of crisis, who do not live a life consistent with their faith and certainly do not stand up for it. "Lord, help me to love you, increase my strength so that I may be willing to lay down my life for you. Enlighten me that I may love you more." This should be our prayer this week so that our faith will not be dead, but will be transformed into life. That is the aspect of faith that Jesus invites us to strengthen with this Gospel. A faith that fills us with courage and makes us capable of facing adversity because we are sure that the Lord is with us. Because, in the end, the real defeat is not given to us by our enemies, but rather by ourselves when, due to lack of faith, we give up fighting for our principles. We may lose many battles and find ourselves reduced to an insignificant minority, but we will not lose the war as long as we do not stop fighting. Defeat will only occur if we believe that it is not worth the fight or that God's strength is not on our side.

ASPIRATIONS: Ask God for faith in His strength and in His love, as well as in the Church, and then do what He asks of you, even if it seems that it will be of no use.

PALABRA DE VIDA

Domingo XXVII: Una fe que se traduzca en valor

"Los apóstoles dijeron al Señor: 'Auméntanos la fe'. El Señor contestó: 'Si tuvierais fe como un granito de mostaza, diríais a esa morera: 'Arráncate de raíz y plántate en el mar', y os obedecería'.» (Lc 17, 5-6)

Generalmente, por fe se entiende confianza y aceptación de unos misterios intelectuales que no logramos entender del todo. Eso es, ciertamente, un aspecto de la fe. Desde esta perspectiva, decimos con razón que tenemos fe, por ejemplo, en el misterio de la Santísima Trinidad o en la presencia real del Señor en la Eucaristía.

Pero tener fe no significa sólo creer en algo, sino sobre todo significa amar algo, querer algo, luchar por algo. Hay demasiados cristianos ortodoxos, incluso en esta época de crisis, que sin embargo no llevan una vida coherente con su fe y que, desde luego, no dan la cara por la misma. "Señor, ayúdame a amarte, auméntame la fuerza para que esté dispuesto a dar la vida por ti. Dame más luz para que te ame más". Esta debería ser nuestra oración esta semana y así la fe no estará muerta, sino que se traducirá en vida. Esa es, además, el aspecto de la fe que Jesús nos invita a potenciar con este evangelio. Una fe que nos llene de valor y que nos haga capaces de afrontar las adversidades, porque estamos seguros de que el Señor está con nosotros. Porque, en definitiva, la verdadera derrota no nos la dan nuestros enemigos, sino que nos la damos nosotros cuando, por falta de fe, renunciamos a luchar por nuestros principios y según nuestros métodos. Podemos perder muchas batallas y vernos reducidos a una insignificante minoría, pero no perderemos la guerra mientras no dejemos de luchar y eso sólo ocurrirá cuando creamos que no merece la pena o que la razón y la fuerza de Dios no están de nuestra parte.

Propósito: Pedir a Dios fe en su fuerza y en su amor, así como en la Iglesia y, a continuación, hacer lo que Él nos pide aunque parezca que no va a servir para nada.

CATECHISM OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

544 The kingdom belongs to the poor and lowly, which means those who have accepted it with humble hearts. Jesus is sent to "preach good news to the poor";<sup>253</sup> he declares them blessed, for "theirs is the kingdom of heaven."<sup>254</sup> To them - the "little ones" the Father is pleased to reveal what remains hidden from the wise and the learned.<sup>255</sup> Jesus shares the life of the poor, from the cradle to the cross; he experiences hunger, thirst and privation.<sup>256</sup> Jesus identifies himself with the poor of every kind and makes active love toward them the condition for entering his kingdom.<sup>257</sup>

545 Jesus invites sinners to the table of the kingdom: "I came not to call the righteous, but sinners."<sup>258</sup> He invites them to that conversion without which one cannot enter the kingdom, but shows them in word and deed his Father's boundless mercy for them and the vast "joy in heaven over one sinner who repents".<sup>259</sup> The supreme proof of his love will be the sacrifice of his own life "for the forgiveness of sins".<sup>260</sup>

CATESISMO DE LA IGLESIA CATÓLICA

544 El Reino pertenece a los pobres y a los pequeños, es decir, a los que lo acogen con un corazón humilde. Jesús fue enviado para "anunciar la Buena Nueva a los pobres" (Lc 4, 18; cf. Lc 7, 22). Los declara bienaventurados porque de "ellos es el Reino de los cielos" (Mt 5, 3); a los "pequeños" es a quienes el Padre se ha dignado revelar las cosas que ha ocultado a los sabios y prudentes (cf. Mt 11, 25). Jesús, desde el pesebre hasta la cruz comparte la vida de los pobres; conoce el hambre (cf. Mc 2, 23-26; Mt 21,18), la sed (cf. Jn 4,6-7; 19,28) y la privación (cf. Lc 9, 58). Aún más: se identifica con los pobres de todas clases y hace del amor activo hacia ellos la condición para entrar en su Reino (cf. Mt 25, 31-46).

545 Jesús invita a los pecadores al banquete del Reino: "No he venido a llamar a justos sino a pecadores" (Mc 2, 17; cf. 1 Tim 1, 15). Les invita a la conversión, sin la cual no se puede entrar en el Reino, pero les muestra de palabra y con hechos la misericordia sin límites de su Padre hacia ellos (cf. Lc 15, 11-32) y la inmensa "alegría en el cielo por un solo pecador que se convierta" (Lc 15, 7). La prueba suprema de este amor será el sacrificio de su propia vida "para remisión de los pecados" (Mt 26, 28).

Happy Feast of St. Francis of Assisi

Prayer:

Lord,
make me an instrument of your peace:
where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
where there is sadness, joy.

O divine Master,
grant that I may not so much seek
to be consoled as to console,
to be understood as to understand,
to be loved as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive,
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
and it is in dying that we are born
to eternal life.
Amen.
